DRUMMONDS Drummond Shaw (below) founded Drummonds 30 years ago as an architectural salvage business, specialising in finding and restoring beautiful interiors products. Out of this grew Drummonds' own bathroom collections, made using the same materials and manufacturing techniques as period fittings from the golden age of bathrooms. From cast-iron baths and china-clay basins to gleaming brassware cast in the lost wax process, Drummonds continues to evolve its timeless classics with an in-house team led by James Lentaigne (left) and collaborations with high-profile designers including Martin Brudnizki. With showrooms in London and New York and new products launching at Decorex, Drummonds is one to watch closely. drummonds-uk.com
