

The Tweed Small Cast Iron Skirted Bath Tub in a Painted Finish

The Ashburn Small Cast Iron Bath Tub With Ball & Claw Feet

Description

Our new Ashburn cast iron bath is a compact freestanding roll top, based on the Bateau Bath design of the 18th century. It's a great fit for smaller spaces and offers all the comforts of a classic double ended design. The River Ashburn flows quickly down a steep river valley through woods and under stone bridges before coming into Ashburton on the north side of town and passing by Ashburton Town Hall, then turning west and heading out of town.
